FROM BISHOP RICHARD: Trinity Sunday Podcast on Vimeo

Dear brothers and sisters,

In this Sunday’s Gospel, Jesus speaks very clearly of the Father, the Son – Himself, and the Holy Spirit. His words express the unity that exists between the Three Persons of the Blessed Trinity. The Holy Spirit will speak what comes from the Son, who has all that belongs to the Father. We express this in the Creed when we speak about the Holy Spirit coming from the Father and the Son.

The mystery of the Trinity is about relationships – the relationships that exist between Father, Son and Spirit, One God. The wonder of God, existing eternally – as we hear in the First Reading this Sunday – pours love into our hearts, as St Paul reminds us.

It is truly wonderful for us to reflect that, through our baptism, we are brought to live our lives in the love that exists in the Trinity. We have a true relationship with a God who is all love and whose love we see, and experience as it is lived between Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

This Sunday’s feast is a feast of love, the mystery of the love that God is, the mystery of the love in which we are enabled to live – the love that exists in Father, Son, and Spirit.

With every Blessing,

+ Richard

“To conquer the whole world for Christ through Mary Immaculate”

Give Us Your Heart, O Mary!, Immaculate Heart of Mary, June 13, 2015

Yesterday with Catholics across the world, “O Jesus, meek and humble of heart, make our hearts like unto thine.” If we wish to have such a heart, we can learn so much from Mary, whose heart was the one that Jesus heard from the first moment when his human ears began to function. Today we say, with St. Louis Marie Grignion de Montfort and St. John Paul II who used to pray this every morning, “Praebe mihi cor tuum, O Maria!,” “Give me your heart, O Mary!” Today is a day on which we ponder what she said to the shepherd children in Fatima, that the solution to all of the problems that lead to atheistic communism, to the persecution of the Church, and ultimately to hell, that the solution to the sin that causes all of those, is consecration to her Immaculate Heart: totally entrusting ourselves to her, entering into her consecration to her Son and through her into his consecration to the Father for our sanctification.

When we ponder Mary's heart, we can do so with the help of the eight adjectives found in the Preface of the Votive Mass of the Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary taken from the most beautiful liturgical book in the Latin Rite: the Collection of Masses of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The Preface reads: "You gave the Blessed Virgin Mary a wise and obedient heart, that she might perfectly carry out your will, a new and gentle heart, in which you were well-pleased and on which you inscribed the Law of the New Covenant. You gave her an undivided and pure heart that she might be worthy to be the Virgin Mother of your Son and to rejoice to see You forever. You gave her a steadfast and watchful heart, so that she could endure without fear the sword of sorrow and await in faith the Resurrection of her Son."

- Wise — A heart like the young Solomon's, because of her pondering and treasuring everything as pieces of a mosaic within.
- Obedient — A heart that hears the word of God and keeps it, that says fiat.
- New — A heart that is the fulfillment of God's promises through Ezekiel to give us a new heart, taking away our stony hearts and giving us hearts of flesh, hearts that beat in love.
- Gentle — A heart that learns from her Son, who says, "Learn from Me for I am gentle and humble of heart."
- Undivided — A heart that seeks above all God's kingdom as the pearl of great price worth everything else, a heart that is a pure echo chamber of an Amen to all God's desires.
- Pure — A heart that sees God, as her Son mentions in the Beatitudes, a heart full of God with no room for sin.
- Steadfast — A heart that perseveres through vicissitudes like the Seven Sorrows, and ultimately shown by standing at the foot of the Cross of her Son.
- Vigilant — A heart that awaits her Son's Resurrection with faith and hope and that awaits our responding to God's graces until we, by God's mercy, come to be with her forever.

That's a heart that St. Anthony had. That's a heart that Mary wants to give us. That's the heart that will fulfill the prayer we made yesterday.

It's at Mass that Jesus responds to our prayers and gives a heart transplant, as we receive his heart and his whole body, blood, soul and divinity with in. This is how he makes our hearts like unto his.

The Marian Prayer of St. Anthony of Padua

Mary, our Queen, Holy Mother of God, we beg you to hear our prayer. Make our hearts overflow with divine grace and resplendent with heavenly wisdom. Render them strong with your might and rich in virtue. Pour down upon us the gift of mercy so that we may obtain the pardon of our sins. Help us to live in such a way as to merit the glory and bliss of Heaven. May this be granted us by your Son Jesus Who has exalted you above the angels, has crowned you as Queen, and has seated you with Him forever on His refulgent throne. Amen.
